Swimlane Turbine Enterprises Packages

Maximize ROI with a full-featured AI automation platform that fits your needs.

Gain access to the Swimlane Turbine AI security automation platform without hidden costs for features or capabilities. The pricing for Swimlane Turbine follows a tiered, value-based model based on the daily average number of events automated. The Turbine pricing model is all about action, not consumption, so customers only pay for the work that Turbine does on their behalf. User-based pricing options are also available. Contact your Swimlane representative for more information about this option.

All Tiers Include

- Case management
- Dashboards & reporting
- Threat intelligence management
- Infinite integrations
- App Builder
- Agentic & generative AI
- Unlimited remote agents
- No & low-code playbook builder
- Full administrative security & compliance controls
- Pre-built solutions for phishing and alert triage

What is an Event?

A billable event is any event that triggers a playbook to run. Event types that count towards a customer's daily average include:

- Webhook
- Record create
- Record update
- CRON
- Button click
- Correlation

Event types that do NOT count towards the daily average include:

- Test

Swimlane Hero AI Capabilities and Value

Hero AI prompts are included for all Turbine customers. However, this functionality is turned OFF by default. Customers may use the included agentic and generative AI capabilities once they acknowledge the Swimlane AI policy, turn Hero AI on, and configure its capabilities with a Swimlane-provided authentication token.

Customers who adopt Hero AI can improve their efficiency by 20% above and beyond automation alone. Generalized return on investment estimates are outlined below. Get a personalized ROI estimate at swimlane.com/roi-calculator.

Hero AI	Productivity Gains	Return on Investment
100 prompts/day	+2 SOC Analysts	$208,333
250 prompts/day	+5 SOC Analysts	$520,833
500 prompts/day	+10 SOC Analysts	$1,041,666
1000 prompts/day	+20 SOC Analysts	$2,083,333
